

Table with columns for episode number, title, date, and detailed event descriptions. The table contains 24 rows of data, each representing an episode. The descriptions include character names, actions, and specific events related to the 'Train' and 'Bus' scenarios. The table is organized into columns representing different stages or elements of the scenarios.

